Due order of law and justice pleaded against irregular and arbitrary proceedings, in the case and late imprisonment of George Whitehead and Thomas Burr in the city and county goal of Norwich, from the 21st day of the 1st moneth, called March, 1679, to the 12th day of the 5th moneth, called July, 1680 ; being an impartial account of the most material passages (and letters to the magistrates) relating to the said proceedings with the prisoners abovesaid, wherein the people called Quakers are vindicated and cleared from popery. Published for information and caution, on the behalf of true Protestants... (1680)

The Real Quaker, a real Protestant, and the spirit of popery directly struck at, in answer to a most malicious and scandalous book entituled "The Papists younger brother" by a disguised author under the titles Misoplanes und Philaethes, but on the contrary proved Philoplanes, Misaethes. By... G. Whitehead (1679)

The Way of life and perfection livingly demonstrated in some serious animadversions, or Remarks and answers upon the book [by J. Humfrey] entituled "The Middle way of perfection, with indifferency between the Orthodox and the Quaker"... by George Whitehead (1676)

Enthusiasm above atheism, or Divine inspiration and immediate illumination, by God himself asserted and the children of light vindicated, in answer to a book entituled "The Danger of enthusiasm discovered", by George Whitehead (1674)

The Christian-Quaker and his divine testimony vindicated by Scripture, reason and authorities against injurious attempts that have been lately made by several adversaries... in II parts, the 1st more general, by William Penn, the 2nd more particular, by George Whitehead (1674)

The Nature of christianity in the true light asserted, in opposition to antichristianism, darkness, confusion and sin-pleasing doctrines, being a looking-glass for sin-pleasing professors of all sorts, written upon particular occasion herein signified by... G. Whitehead (1671)

Reason against railing, and truth against fiction, being an answer to those two late pamphlets, intituled "A Dialogue between a Christian and a Quaker" and the "Continuation of the Dialogue etc.", by one Thomas Hicks,...
